Fall Camporee

October 8-12 2021

Historian: Philip Tranchina

We met at Dorothy- Nolan then got in the car and went to the Saratoga fairgrounds and set up our tents. When we were done setting up our tents we went over to another troop and played a version of jackpot with them while talking. Then, we were told to get our Patrol box out along with the food for tomorrow morning. When we were done with that we sat around, talked, then went to bed. In the morning we cooked breakfast which was pancakes and bacon then, cleaned up, put on our Class A's and walked over to a building and saw a bunch of scouting history in forms of patches, clothing articles, books and booklets with other items. We got a free t shirt from that building. After that we went to a slightly smaller building and they had over 20

The screenshot shows a web editor interface with a sidebar on the left and a main content area. The sidebar contains a list of blocks, including "Klondike Derby", "February 5-7", and "Historian: Billy Jobmann". A red box highlights the "Copy to Clipboard" option in the sidebar. A red arrow points from this option to a "Paste from Clipboard" dialog box that appears in the center of the screen. The dialog box shows the content of the selected block, including the title "Klondike Derby", the date "February 5-7", and the historian "Billy Jobmann". A second red arrow points from the "Paste from Clipboard" dialog box to the "Add to Main" button at the bottom of the sidebar. A text box at the bottom of the image reads "Paste the block on 'Add to Main'".

Klondike Derby

February 5-7

Historian: Billy Jobmann

The Klondike Derby was the first weekend of February, the 5th, 6th and 7th. There was a lot of cheering and fun to be had. Everyone had a good time. We got together prior to the event and built a new sled as we were having two teams for the derby. The new sled looks really cool and it was seriously light, making it easy to push or pull.

For the derby, the courses included, ice rescue, orienteering, sled racing, shelter building and knot's gorge cross, ladder step thing, and first aid to name a few. Both teams did well. The first team won the race and overall derby. Congratulations. The younger team worked together and worked well together.

A funny thing that happened at one point was that Eric fell into the mud, grabbed the sled, but was still dragged down the mud. The next day, we saw his tracks frozen in the ground.

For our group, we felt the portion required us to improvise because the younger group did well.

The older group got five points.

Overall, it was a lot of fun along with having to
